

J. D. Simons Community Volunteer Award

The distinction of being the founder of Colfax goes to a man named John D. Simons. As a businessman and philanthropist, he was one of the most influential characters in the early history of this locality and many a poor man could point to him as the man who “helped him out” in time of dire distress.

Beginning with Mr. Simons, there have been many business owners and residents that have carried on the values of volunteering, supporting and promoting the village of Colfax. In this spirit of volunteerism the Colfax Commercial Club is seeking to recognize an “unsung hero” in our community.

Do you have a relative, a friend or a co-worker who is having an impact in our local community? IF so, we would like to hear about them and a little about you and why you feel they are an “unsung hero”.

The nomination process is simple. Fill in the name; address and telephone number of both your nominee and yourself as the nominator. Write a brief, passionate, compelling story about your friend. Tell something that distinguishes them as an individual. Then highlight how the nominee’s actions benefit the lives of others and the local community.
That’s it!
